

New Jersey Judiciary Superior Court - Appellate Division Transcript Ordering Information

Transcripts are the written record of exactly what was said during court. Judges review transcripts to know what has occurred previously and to assist in making a decision on the case.

There are two types of transcripts: appeal and non-appeal. The simple difference is appeal transcripts are usually mandatory and are ordered during the appeal process. You cannot order appeal transcripts if you do not have an appeal pending with the Appellate Court. Non-appeal transcripts are used for reasons other than an appeal or to review your matter prior to appealing. Non-Appeal transcripts can be used in your appeal later as long as they are the complete record for that date (not an excerpt) and were completed by a certified transcriber.

For Appeal cases, the party who is filing the appeal (or cross-appeal) is responsible for finding out the transcript dates needed for their case and ordering them. Failure to order or submit transcript(s) can result in the dismissal of your appeal. If you previously ordered complete and certified transcript dates for other uses, they can be uploaded into your case without repurchasing. Transcripts are the only record that is admissible in court.

NOTE: These procedures explain how to order transcript(s) for an appeal of a Superior Court (trial court) and Tax Court decision. Transcripts originating from a State Agency or a municipal court must be ordered through those entities individually by you and not through the Appellate or Local County Transcript office.

Ordering Process for Self-Represented Litigants

Self-represented litigants who are not represented by an attorney must order their transcripts using the Court Transcript Request Form attached. If the Superior Court transcript is for non-appeal purposes or you wish to review your case prior to appealing, you would send the Court Transcript Request Form to the local county transcript office where the case originated. If the Tax Court transcript is for non-appeal purposes, you would send the Court Transcript Request Form to the Appellate Division Transcript Unit. If the Superior Court or Tax Court transcript is for appeal, you would send the Court Transcript Request Form to Appellate Division Transcript Unit.

Ordering Process for Attorneys:

Attorneys must order their Superior Court and Tax Court appeal transcript(s) through eCourts Appellate, no paper transcript request forms will be accepted from attorneys. Please read the Notice to the Bar \(Appellate Division\) and Notice to the Bar \(Tax Court\) for more information. Any attorney without a current appeal (for example, attorneys who are not ordering a transcript at the same time as filing an appeal) must order their Superior Court transcript(s) as non-appeal through the local county transcript office where the case originated. If ordering a Tax Court transcript as non-appeal you would email it over to Appellate Division Transcript Unit.

Attorneys can e-file using the link below and entering their Bar ID and password for access.
